To All Persons Interested. NDEB instructions from the State Comptroller,
I desire to call your attention to the late decision of the sucreme Court in the case of the State et al. vs. Martha W. Duncan. In this case it was held that the State's lien for taxes could be enforced

betd that the State's lien for taxes could be enforced by bills flied in the Chancery Court; that the equity of redemption would be barred, and that porchasers would acquire valid titles to real estate sold under these proceedings. In accordance with the terms of the decree in this case. I will issue cartificates of redem, tion to parties who actile before the filing of a bill against their prope ty, unon the payment of the original bx with interest since the dare of tax-cale, together with the Clerk's and Collector's fees.

On the 15th of April Next,

I will commence to file bills against all delinquest I will commence to file bills against all delinquest property not redeemed by that date. To avoid the expense to the taxpayer that will be incurred by the filing of such bills, I have tried as far I could to give. filing of such bills, I have tried as far I could to give personal notice to parties who are interested in the delinquent list, and I will continue to do so until the date above named (April 15th), but owing 10 the number of delinquents it will be impossible for all to be so notified. In view of this I would urg a upon property-owners the necessity of calling at once at the office, to see it anything appears upon the tarbooks against them. Respectfully.

State and County Agent and Back Tax-Ce flector.
